Dear Mum,

I don't think you understand my life. You think I should be studying all the time. I know you want me to find a good job when I grow up, but I'm only fourteen years old. I would like to have a wonderful time, too. You never think about fun things for me to do, like music, sports. Two days ago, when I was watching the World Cup on TV, you asked me to stop and do my homework. After finishing my homework, still I wasn't allowed to read my favorite football magazines. You said I had to go to bed early. Mum, I didn't quite like what you did to me! I really love you, but I wish you could try not to be hard on me.

Love,
Frank

Christmas Day, the birthday of Jesus Christ, is the most important festival in Britain and some other countries. On Christmas Eve, people usually tell their children to put their stockings at the end of their beds before they go to sleep. Children believe Santa Claus, also called Father Christmas, will come during the night and fill their stockings with Christmas presents.

Actually, Father Christmas is children's father. He dresses up in a red coat and waits until children fall asleep. Then he goes into children's bedrooms, and puts small presents in their stockings. When children are no longer young, they know who Father Christmas really is.

Not only children but also their parents enjoy Christmas stockings. They also have stockings.

Early on the morning of Christmas Day, children wake their parents up and say "Merry Christmas". Then they help their parents open their stockings. Everybody likes presents. But it is better to give than to receive.

London is the capital of England. I like it very much. It's the oldest city in Britain, and certainly the biggest city in Europe. The people there are friendly and polite. I like the weather there; it's not too hot in summer and not too cold in winter. The traffic is very convenient. There is one of the world's biggest underground railway systems. It carries more than five hundred thousand people a day. There are also lots of big stores like Marks&Spencers and many supermarkets like Sainsbury in London. There are also many churches and parks in London.

But the weather there is changeable. Sometimes it's warm and sunny in the morning, but cold and rainy in the afternoon. Foggy weather is the typical one in London. So the streets in the city are usually too crowded.

Here's some information about our trip to Hang Zhou Zoo tomorrow. It's a long journey, about two hours, so we have to start early. That means we'll have breakfast at half past seven. The bus has to leave at half past eight. When you finish breakfast, go to the parking lot to get on the bus. It's at the school gate. Remember to bring your yellow tickets for lunch. We'll have lunch at the restaurant near the zoo and you must have your yellow tickets, or you won't get any lunch. If you haven't got a yellow ticket yet, you can get one from your teacher. Oh, one more thing, I know it's spring but it can be quite cold in the mountains even in March, so bring a coat with you. You'll need one in the evening.

All right? I'll see you tomorrow morning.

Think twice before you search online

Some students now have a new use for the Internet—helping them with their homework. But different people have different ideas about it.

Some students agree with it. They sometimes don't know the answers to the problems, so they have to turn to the Internet. They think they can learn from other people. At the same time, it's easy and it saves time.

However, not all the students welcome this. Many students think simply copying the answers won't improve their abilities and it may make students stop thinking.

I think students should first think over the problems by themselves. If we use the Internet properly, it could be a good way to study.

 W: Yes. You see, Judy and I timed to play table tennis tomorrow. But my cousin has broken my bat. I think Judy has another one. So please ask her to bring it for me.
 M: So, Susan called; her table tennis bat broken; hope Judy brings another one?
 W: Yes, thank you. Err...one more thing, I lent her a book two weeks ago. I think she has probably forgotten it all together. Could you possibly ask her to bring along that book as well?
 M: Ok, bring along Susan's book.
 W: Thank you very much. Bye.
 M: Bye.

M: Let's go hiking around the Greek islands this summer with backpacks. I found a great travel guide with lists of places to stay and restaurants which aren't expensive.
 W: If we go, I need my own bathroom, a swimming pool and room service.
 M: No, I like to do what I want, when I want. Let's go camping. We don't need room service. We can cook for ourselves on an open fire.
 W: Oh, no! I hate sleeping on the ground. Besides, I always hate to worry about little insects, building a fire and what to do if it rains.
 M: OK. Then you could just stay home and play computer games. No problem with rain, little insects and building a fire.
 W: Good idea. That will be a real least expensive holiday. Remember to send me a postcard from Greece when you are there.

III. 听短文,回答问题。

本题是一篇短文,短文后有五个问题,我们把短文念两遍。请你根据短文内容回答问题。

Hi, I'd like to talk to the manager about something. I have to travel every day from Souk Road to the airport. Only the Number 16 bus travels along this road.

Your timetable is there. It shows that there are buses from Souk Road to the airport every ten minutes. If this is so, why do I have to wait half an hour for a bus nearly every day?

The rules say that if there are empty seats on a bus, they just stop at every stop where people are waiting. Why is it, therefore, that half - empty buses go straight past me when I am standing at the bus stop?

The rules say that no bus may carry more than 40 seated passengers and 20 standing passengers. Yesterday I was the first to get off the bus when I reached the airport. I counted the other passengers as they got off. There were 129 of them.

Clearly printed on the back of every bus is a sign that says "Highest speed: 50mph." The distance from Souk Road to Kai Tak is 12 miles. On Saturday morning a Number 49 bus traveled this distance in 10 minutes. At times, it must have done at least 80 or 90 mph.

It is obvious that our bus companies have no respect for the rules or consideration for the passengers. Can nothing be done about this?

The Advantages and Disadvantages of the Micro-blog

As we all know, Micro-blog has many advantages. Many people use micro-blogs to describe their daily life and share with their friends. Besides, through the micro-blog, they can quickly understand different news.

However, micro-blog also has some disadvantages. Some information on the micro-blog may be distorted and misleading. What's more, if people are addicted to the micro-blog, it must be bad for their life.

In my opinion, although Micro-blog plays an important role in our life, paying too much attention to the micro-blog will do harm to our study and life. As a result, we are supposed to use micro-blog reasonably.

When Kate was a kid, the Easter holidays in Australia were her favorite time of the year. When they began in April, her family would go to the beach for a week. They used to spend all day outside-swimming, hiking and fishing. On Easter morning, her parents would wake up early and ask her three brothers and her to find Easter eggs. They would put the eggs in the trees, under their tents or under the stones. After that they would come back with chocolate. For them, Easter wasn't about chocolate eggs. It was about being with her family in the great outdoors.

I also should attend some extra classes during the weekend. Besides, I am not allowed to surf the net to chat with friends or play computer games. I am even not allowed to hang out with classmates sometimes.

To be honest, I don't exactly agree with all of that. In my opinion, I also need some leisure time to relax myself because "all work without play makes John a dull boy". Therefore, I wrote this letter to share my feelings about those rules and hope you can change your mind to some extent. I promise I will study better than before.

One of the most detailed descriptions of a UFO was given by nine-year-old Gina in July 1976. Gina lived in Oakenholt, a village in England. On her way home from school, she saw a silver thing like a plate in a field not far from her home.

The strange UFO was about 30 feet long and 9 feet high. It had yellow windows along the side and on the top there was a light flashing. Although Gina was very frightened, she did not run away. Instead, she lay quietly in the long grass and watched the door of the strange thing open. She saw two people come out. They were carrying some kind of equipment(设备) which they used to look for something. They were short and had large pink eyes.

After about half an hour, the two people went back into the UFO. At once there was a loud noise and the UFO took off.

Chinese people often throw away a lot of gift bags and wrapping paper every day. But in the USA, people like to reuse papers so as to save the natural resources.

As is shown in the chart, about 78% of the Americans like to reuse those holiday gift bags, some of which are really used once again. Around 70% would like to reuse the boxes, in which they can store many small things. And sixty percent like to reuse the tissue paper especially outside the home. Besides, less than 50% would like to reuse their wrapping paper. Only one in ten won't reuse papers.

To my understanding, it is good manners to reuse papers. For one thing, it can release the burden of cleaners, for another, it can also help save our natural resources.

W: What about these flowers? They're fresh and not very expensive.

4. M: Look at the man spitting over there. What a rude man!

W: Yeah, we should stop him from doing it again.

5. M: I think the skirt doesn't fit your mom. The scarf is beautiful.

W: Good idea. I think my mother will like it.

I'll take this one.

II. 听长对话, 回答问题。

W: Well, I ate dinner. I made a lot of noise.

M: Why was it a problem? Didn't they make any noise?

W: No, they just looked at me strangely sometimes while I was eating noodles.

M: We Japanese people think it polite to make noise when we eat noodles. I guess it may be different in France.

W: Yes, people in France think it polite to eat quietly.

M: So we'd better make sure what we are supposed to do before we go to a dinner in another country.

W: You're right. I won't make such a mistake any more.

M: I've never traveled outside China. I'm not sure what I'm supposed to do to be polite. Could you give me any advice?

W: When I was in America last year, I was amazed at the great differences between America and China.

M: Oh? Why?

W: We Chinese tend to call on our friends unexpectedly before we visit them. But in America, you should make an appointment in advance.

M: Really? I've never heard of this.

W: For another thing, our Chinese eat directly from the serving dish. An American, however, only eats from his own plate and he never picks up food for others.

When they walked in, an office worker stopped them and said, "You'll have to get out if your little son cries, but you can get all your money back."

Forty minutes later, Mr. Black asked his wife, "What do you think of the movie?" "It's too boring!" answered his wife. "I don't like it, either." Mr. Black said, "Why not wake up our son and let him cry?"

Exam is a part of our study life. Some students don't mind exams. They think exams are very important for students. They can assess themselves after learning. And exams will make students improve a lot than before.

However, some students think exams will make them anxious; they even can't sleep and eat well, because they are afraid of failure.

In my opinion, there is no need for students to feel worried. It only makes you work worse and can't help you get better grades. It's just a way of assessment, if you do well, just keep it, while if you fail, work harder.

Exam will not decide you all the time, only your attitude.

Hip-hop dancing has a history of more than 20 years. It first began in the 1980s in the US. In early times, it was seen in New York and Los Angeles. At that time, many young black people often danced to the music in the streets. They used their legs, arms, heads and even shoulders to dance. Many young people still use most of these moves today.

Hip-hop dancing became popular all over the world because of the 1983 movie Flash-dance. Some people performed Hip-hop dancing in the movies. People enjoyed their performance. They began to dance like them.

The burden of students has been a hot topic for years, but the load of parents has received little attention, especially from their own children.

In the picture, a little girl is washing the feet for her mum. The big smile on mother's face shows how happy she feels.

This reminds me of my mother who has been doing whatever she could to let me have the best. But, I seldom pay my attention to what mother needs and feels, and always think studying well is the only thing I can do in return. Now I know I can do something to help her, such as washing, bedroom cleaning and so on. The picture makes me realize that it is much more important to be a good daughter than a "good" student.

With global warming getting worse, more people choose to live a low carbon life for the purpose of reducing greenhouse gases.

We'd better reduce the amount of water, paper and electricity we use. We should also use less carbon and oil. It's important to turn off the lights and computers when we leave the room. We are supposed to take our own bags when we go shopping instead of using plastic bags from supermarkets. We can buy fewer clothes that are unnecessary. We shouldn't buy or use one-off cups, chopsticks or bowls. It's good for us to walk or take bikes to school instead of taking cars. We can also plant more trees to freshen the air around us.

Hello, my name is Jim. I really love to play basketball and I want to tell you how I get good at playing basketball with my team-mates. To play basketball well, I need to work hard and practice a lot, this is what my team-mates and I do to get good at playing basketball.

On Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays I practice with my team-mates on the basketball court, we practice from 3:30p. m. to 5:00p. m. . We work on passing balls, shooting balls, and how to score points during the game.

On Thursdays, we practise running, and do exercise. This helps to keep us from getting hurt during a game. Not practicing or exercising properly is the main reason why players get hurt.

On the weekends, we enjoy some free time together. For free time, we like to watch movies or eat some delicious food together. Doing these things together helps us to become good friends.

By doing these things we learn to be good basketball players, good team-mates, and good friends. Working hard and practicing a lot are very important. But cooperation is more important.

Dear Mr. White,

How time flies! It's hard for me to say goodbye. I'm writing to thank you for your help!

Three years ago, I was new in this class. I didn't have any friends. I felt so lonely. Luckily, you became my English teacher. You often talked to me, and encouraged me to make more friends. This made me feel lonely no longer. At first, I was not good at English. You always took the time to explain things to me clearly whenever I couldn't understand anything. You told me the good ways to learn English. With your help, my English has been improving.

It is always hard to separate from those whom I have spent so much time with for the past three years. Thank you again. I want to be a good English teacher like you. So I can help more children. I can make them love English.

Yours,

Zhang Ming

Part C

XII. In winter I get up at night,

And dress by yellow candle-light.

In summer, quite the other way,

I have to go to bed by day.

I have to go to bed and see.

The birds still hopping on the tree.

Or hear the grown-up people's feet

Still going past me in the street.

And does it seem hard to you,

When all the sky is clear and blue,

And I should like so much to play,

To have to go to bed by day?

Who is your favorite teacher? For me, I like Ms. Zhang the most. She is my English teacher. She is 40 years old, and she looks beautiful. She has long black hair. She is 1.65 meters tall. In summer, she loves wearing skirts.

She is very kind to her students. When we do something wrong, she is always patient. Once, I pushed my classmate on the ground by accident when we ran during morning exercises. I felt upset and I thought Ms. Zhang would punish me because my classmate's leg was bleeding. However, she didn't. She just told me: "Remember not to run so fast next time."

Such is my favorite teacher.

How to make yourself more attractive?

Nowadays, more and more teenagers pay tons of attention to appearance. To make yourself more attractive, some students think we should sleep enough. Because, in this way, we will be in good condition and keep energetic all day. What's more, doing more exercise is also a good way, for we can keep a healthy body and prevent us from falling ill. Also, why not read some books? The more we know, the better we will be! Last but not least, we can learn a foreign language, like English, in order to learn a lot from foreign countries.

As for me, knowledge is more important than the appearance. Because years may wrinkle the skin, but knowledge will never grow old. Let's learn hard to become more attractive! (107 words)

Recently our Ningbo Rail Transport has made a new rule. That is, eating is not allowed on the subway. The given reasons are as follows:

First of all, there is not enough space on the subway, so the smell of food will have an effect on others. Second, you may turn over the drink by accident, as a result, people may fall down easily. Besides, the leftovers on the floor will definitely make the subway untidy and dirty. What's more, you could get injured because of a sudden brake of the train.

To my understanding, making a rule is a must, however, obeying the rule is more necessary. Therefore, the most important is to get into a good habit on the subway.
